

HOW TO...

WATER LEVEL

Water finds its own level ... so put it to use.

Use a length of clear plastic tube. Fill with water making sure there are no air bubbles. The water will find its own level.

This method is very useful for checking levels around corners or over distances where your level will not reach.

